

Date	Sunday, 20 Sept 2026	Subject	English Language	Teacher(s)	Ms. Saidah Khwar	Lesson # / Title	Writing - An Email from College - Part 1
Lesson Topic	Planning, Email Structure and Reading a Model Email		Key Learning Objectives	- Identify the main parts and organization of a friendly email. - Use college-life vocabulary to plan an email. - Read a model email for main idea, paragraph topics and supporting details. - Use text evidence to explain vocabulary and details.
H.O.T. Question	How does organizing an email into clear parts and paragraphs help the reader understand the writer message?
Keywords / New Vocabulary	email, subject, greeting, opening paragraph, body, closing statement, signature, dorm, campus, across from
Success Criteria	Students identify email parts, organize relevant planning ideas, select the main topic and match paragraph topics using evidence.
Lesson Procedures
Interactive Lesson	Open Interactive Lesson (GitHub Pages)

Warm up / Starter	Discussion - Page 13 (7 min): Students study the four visuals and discuss the six book questions about communication and apps. Teacher prompts and models one response. AFL: think-pair-share and targeted questioning.			7 min
E-Tool	H / M / L	Differentiation	Main Activities linked to LO / AFL Strategy	Timing
Interactive lesson webpage; Smart Board; textbook images; Audio 1		Explain why each email part is needed; infer meaning and justify with evidence.	Main 1 - Vocabulary + Audio, Page 14 (8 min): listen, classify vocabulary and check meaning. AFL: answer reveal. Main 2 - Build the Email Game (8 min): order Subject, Greeting, Opening, Body, Closing and Signature; explain purpose. AFL: game feedback. Main 3 - Plan Your Email, Page 14 (8 min): select and organize key ideas. AFL: planning check. Main 4 - An Email from College, Pages 15-17 (11 min): identify parts, main topic, paragraph topics, details and new words. AFL: evidence check.	35 min
		Use visible labels, paragraph clues and planning prompts.
		Use word banks, highlighted text, sentence frames and guided choices.
Plenary		Email Parts Check (3 min): name the main email parts in order and explain the purpose of one part.		3 min
Learning Skills		Critical Thinking, Collaboration, Communication, Independent Learning
Cross Curricular		ICT / Life Skills: digital communication, planning and respectful contact with family and friends.
UAE Culture and Heritage / UAE Vision 2031		Confident English communication, responsible digital citizenship and strong family/community connections.		