

Date	Sunday, 20 Sept 2026	Subject	English Language	Teacher(s)	Ms. Saidah Khwar	Lesson # / Title	Writing - An Email from College - Part 2
Lesson Topic	Maps, Location Prepositions and Email Structure Review		Key Learning Objectives	- Use location prepositions accurately to describe places. - Interpret campus and town maps using written clues. - Locate places and justify answers using map evidence. - Review the organization and main parts of a friendly email.
H.O.T. Question	How do precise location words help a reader understand a place without seeing it?
Keywords / New Vocabulary	across from, in, next to, on, on campus, on the corner of, map, direction, greeting, closing, signature
Success Criteria	Students locate places from map clues, complete location sentences with precise prepositions and identify the main parts of an email.
Lesson Procedures
Interactive Lesson	Open Interactive Lesson (GitHub Pages)

Warm up / Starter	Campus Map Review (7 min): Students study the campus map, recall direction/location words and describe selected places. Teacher models one location sentence. AFL: pair rehearsal and cold call.			7 min
E-Tool	H / M / L	Differentiation	Main Activities linked to LO / AFL Strategy	Timing
Interactive lesson webpage; Smart Board; textbook maps		Create additional accurate map descriptions and justify answers using evidence.	Main 1 - Campus Map Locations, Pages 16-17 (15 min): use Sunny email and the campus map to identify six places. AFL: progressive answer reveal and justification. Main 2 - Focusing on a Map, Page 18 (18 min): complete five location sentences using across from, in, next to, on and on the corner of. AFL: oral checks and answer reveal.	33 min
		Use the preposition bank, map clues and pair discussion.
		Follow one clue at a time with highlighted landmarks and guided choices.
Plenary		Preparing to Write - Email Structure Review (5 min): review Greeting, Opening paragraph, Number of paragraphs, Topic of each paragraph, Closing statement and Signature.		5 min
Learning Skills		Critical Thinking, Collaboration, Communication, Independent Learning
Cross Curricular		Geography / ICT: map-reading, spatial relationships and clear email communication.
UAE Culture and Heritage / UAE Vision 2031		Precise communication, independent navigation, digital literacy and confident lifelong learning.		